About This Content

Purchasing Max Focus will permanently unlock this character in Awesomenauts. The character can also be purchased with Awesomenauts in-game, and is included in the Awesomenauts Starter Pack.

Max Focus is an accessible harasser that can shoot out streams of horizontal bullets and project a big time-slowing orb. He comes equipped with the following abilities:

- Light up the scene with a steady stream of lights, that also deal damage.
- Nail those slow-motion shots by launching an area that slows time itself.
- Briefly overexpose your scene with a nuclear powered floodlight.

Originally a security camera who was accidentally turned sentient by Professor M. Yoolip, Max quickly found a job with the Channel 7 Galactic News when that professor somehow slipped out of time. For years, Max happily caught the juiciest news from the most compromising angles.

When the war between the Ones and Zeroes broke out, Max developed a real taste for war reporting. Craving even bigger explosions and spectacle, Max decided it was time to start making the news himself and joined the Awesomenauts.
